PRESENTS

Ethical Practices for Protecting Your Practice

May 21, 2017

7 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET (6 p.m. - 9 p.m. CT)

Online via WebEx

Featuring

Tony Watkins,
LMFT (AL)

One of the major challenges in building a private practice is finding ethical, effective ways to protect your investment, your clients, and yourself. This workshop, presented by Tony Watkins, focuses on ethical risk-management strategies which can be utilized by clinicians in private practice.

Whether you are currently trying to start a private practice or are already in practice and hoping to strengthen your existing safeguards, this workshop will provide you with excellent information going forward!

About the Presenter

TONY WATKINS, LMFT

Tony is an LMFT in the state of Alabama and he provides clinical services in his private practice and he works as a military and family life counselor. Tony is a certified trainer for AMSR, Assessing and Managing Suicide Risk, as well as, a certified trainer in several other evidence-based treatments. Formerly, he was an administrator and therapist with Northkey Community Mental Health in Northern Kentucky. He is also a former chair of the Kentucky Board of Licensure for Marriage and Family Therapists. Mr. Watkins is a seasoned workshop presenter, presenting routinely on MFT Ethics, MFT Supervision, and a number of other topics. His wealth of experience from serving the licensure board, along with his work in community mental health are great assets to each of the presentations in which he is involved.
